

Premium Moving Services

Assurance because every detail matters.

Personalized support with customizable, high-level service options, catered to meet your unique moving needs.

Hilldrup is pleased to offer Premium Moving Services to high-profile VIPs, busy executives and individuals with unique moving needs as they prepare to relocate. You can rest assured that Hilldrup has the professionals and experience required to deliver exemplary service through every step of the move process.

Our program begins with the assignment of a VIP Premium Services Director who will develop a comprehensive move plan specifically for you. They will also be present at residence to assist with the inventory process, streamline communication with our move team and ensure services are delivered to your complete satisfaction.

You will find our teams are courteous, knowledgeable and well-trained. Each professional understands the intricacies of working in a VIP's home and how critical it is to deliver a flawless experience. Whenever possible, the same team members will be utilized on all service days.

Our Premium Moving Services include the following:

- Comprehensive premove consultation and planning
- Creation of a custom move plan and review of services
- Single point of contact/accountability
- Highly experienced service teams
- Management and monitoring of all moving services
- In-home assistance on all service days
- Coordination with specialty third-party services
- Coordination of settling-in, cleaning and maid services
- Coordination of pet and specialized wine transportation
